M.A.(Education)

PROGRAME OUTCOMES (POs)

- Use knowledge, understanding and skills required for identifying problems and issues, collection of relevant quantitative and qualitative data from drawing from different sources, and apply appropriate research methodology and participate in generating new knowledge.

- Connect and establish linkages with other subjects. Meet own learning needs by accessing to educational resources both online and offline.

- Demonstrate understanding of an academic field of study and its paradigm, current educational development and contemporary issues in education.

- Apply knowledge and skills to new contexts and engage with individuals, institutions and society.

- Critically thinking , refelect and analyze arguments, claims evidence and problem in the Indian context.

PROGRAME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES (SPOs)

- Demonstrate a critical engagement with educational discourse, theries and practice.

- Situate education practices in historical,political and socio-cultural contexts,both locally and globally.

- Pursue guided and ethical research study and demonstrate the ability to analze and symthesize informantion to address research questions.

- Attain ability to exercise Research intelligence in investigations and innovations.
- Acquire ability to function in multidisciplinary domains.