

Institute of Pharmacy is a well-established Institution of Bundelkhand University, Uttar Pradesh, India, having a high profile with interdisciplinary areas of specializations in Pharmacy. This Institute was established in 1999.

Institute offers four courses i.e. D. Pharm., B. Pharm., M. Pharm. (Pharmaceutics, & Pharmacognosy), and Ph.D. All the courses are duly approved by AICTE and PCI.

The Institute of Pharmacy inspires and educates current and future pharmacists and scientists to engage in cutting-edge research and leads practice development to improve the health of the people of India and the world.

Diploma in Pharmacy (D. Pharm.)

Programme Educational Objectives

- To impart patient-centric education and to train pharmacists towards handling their clinical and patient-centric responsibilities. Counseling of patient on diet, lifestyle, etc.
- To develop close industry-academia ties to generate a potential knowledge pool with interpersonal and collaborative skills. To identify the problems and execute the solution in close relation with pharmaceutical industries.
- Drug information, patient counseling, and awareness and to provide information about the requirement of hospital and community pharmacy and also to develop a sense of teamwork and awareness among students. To promote rational use of medicine within the healthcare facilities and at the community pharmacies.
- To produce qualified pharmacists with strong fundamental concepts and high technical competence in pharmaceutical science and technology, who are proficient in communicating, understanding the medical languages as it relates to pharmacology, human anatomy, and physiology, dispensing medication in varying forms, etc.
- To develop middle-level pharmacy, human resources for good pharmacy practice in the hospital as well as in community settings. To ethically apply their knowledge and skills of pharmacy with an understanding of realistic constrain for the overall benefit of the society.

Programme Outcomes

- Assess various disease conditions, read and interpret drug prescriptions.
- To prepare, package, label, and dispense medications perform non-sterile compounding.
- Read, interpret, and processing the prescription.
- Maintain inventory record, analyse, organize, improvise and manage the document.
- Create awareness in society about the effective and safe use of medicines along with their storage conditions.
- Demonstrate the use of medical aids to patients.
- Solve problems as a part of the healthcare system
- Respect patients, healthcare providers, and pharmacy co-workers.
- Develop an aptitude for skill development and continuous learning.
- Provide empathy to chronic/emergency/economically backward patients and their families.
- Apply knowledge of ethics to patient's as well as the society.

Programme Specific Outcomes

- Students can get enrolled as registered Pharmacists in their respective state Pharmacy Council.
- Core team member in the health care system in Hospitals.
- Dispensing of medication & Assist Patients through Counseling to improve Compliance of therapy.

