Policy Document for Students with Disabilities

This policy paper is recognized as the policy for students with disabilities of the Bundelkhand University, Jhansi. Disabled students have been generally excluded from the normal education system but the right to education policy of government focuses on the need to have inclusive educations. Bundelkhand University provides equal opportunities to all the students of the University irrespective of any factors. Bundelkhand University aims to provide an environment of motivation and nurturance for such students to accommodate their needs. The policy also aims to spread awareness among other students so that they accept and treat disabled students as the same.

“Person with disability” means a person with long terms physical, mental, intellectual, or sensory impairment which, in interaction with barriers, hinders his full and affective participation in society equally with others.
