AJANTA AND ELLORA - OUR HERITAGE :

OUR IDENTITY ART EXHIBITION

The picture reflects our cultural, social, economic and educational status. Ajanta and Ellora have been recognized as World Heritage. This is the recognition given by the world to our artistic expression. Vice Chancellor of Bundelkhand University Jhansi, Prof. Mukesh Pandey expressed this idea today. Addressing the participants on the inauguration of the painting exhibition organized by Prof. Pandey Srijan The Drawing and Painting Club, Bundelkhand University Jhansi said.

Prof. Pandey said that the caves of Ajanta Ellora have actually appeared here. The art work created by the students is very different from the art work available on the internet and is vibrant. From this it can easily be said that the students have made full use of their educational tour.

District Magistrate of Jhansi

district Ravindra Kumar, the chief guest of the programme, said that when there was no language in the world, people used to express themselves through pictures only. Looking at the artistic splendor of India, it seems that here people have used art as a form of communication. It is a powerful medium of communication and self-expression for a long time.

Director General of the Indian Institute of Mass Communication, New Delhi, Prof. Sanjay

Dwivedi said that painting has always been relevant. The creations made by the children will prove to be helpful in awakening the time.

Dean of Arts Faculty Prof. Munna Tiwari said that Bundeli gallery will be constructed with the help of students of Bundelkhand University Jhansi. The way we go today to see the art works of Ajanta and Ellora, in the same way it will be our endeavor to preserve the artistry here and get its place in the world.

Jhansi Divisional Tourism Commissioner SK Dubey said that the caves of Ajanta and Ellora have their heritage as well as equality in

Volunteers take out awareness rally on AIDS Day

NSS University Jhansi Unit II and VI organized third one day camp

Volunteers of Unit II and VI of National Service Scheme Bundelkhand University Jhansi organized an awareness rally on the occasion of AIDS Day today. Volunteers told people about AIDS causes, prevention and misconceptions through self made posters.

Addressing the rally, Vice Chancellor of Bundelkhand University Jhansi, Prof. Mukesh Pandey said that there is protection only in awareness. It is necessary for a person to be aware of AIDS.

In-charge Coordinator NSS and Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh discussed with the volunteers about AIDS and told about its misconceptions.

Inaugurating the rally, Dean Faculty of Arts

Prof. Munna Tiwari said that AIDS is not a disease but it is the root of all diseases. He said that no remedy has yet been discovered for the diagnosis of AIDS. There is only protection in knowledge. He said that many misconceptions about AIDS are spread in the society, which is the responsibility of the volunteers to remove them. Volunteers can easily do this work with their efforts.

On this occasion, Senior Program Officer Dr.

Shweta Pandey told that the volunteers of Bundelkhand University Jhansi have played an important role in creating awareness about the evils and diseases prevailing in the society. Today the volunteers made people aware about AIDS and tried to dispel misconceptions.

National Service Scheme Nodal Officer District Jhansi Dr. Umesh Kumar said that volunteers of Unit II and VI participated in AIDS awareness rally today. The volunteers did the work of making people aware with self-made material.

Program Officer Dr. Shubhangi Nigam, Brijesh Kumar Lodhi, volunteers of Unit II, VI, III and IX were present on this occasion.

Short film and documentary competition organized on World Television Day

Competition organized by Pragya and Srijan Club, Bundelkhand University Jhansi

Pragya the Creative and Literary Club and Srijan the Drawing and Painting Club, Bundelkhand University Jhansi organized a short film and documentary competition on the occasion of World Television Day today. The theme of this competition was Bundelkhand University Jhansi. This program was presided over by Dean Faculty of Arts, Prof. Munna Tiwari and Chief Guest Assistant Registrar Finance Sunil Kumar Sen. Govind Kumar was the judge of short film and documentary.

The coordinator of the competition Dr. Shweta Pandey told that the students of the university made documentary films on various departments of the university. The students made a total of new documentaries which were displayed in the Multi Media Lab and Research Centre.

While presiding over the programme, Dean Faculty of Arts Prof. Munna Tiwari appreciated the work of the students and said that the university will try to make a good documentary soon. He said that efforts will be made to do whatever is required for this.

Assistant Registrar Finance Sunil Kumar Sen said that it is very important to participate in any competition. If we don't win, we definitely learn something. He appreciated the work of the students and wished them all the best for the future.

Co-convenor of the competition, Dr. Umesh Kumar said that World Television Day is organized every year on 21 November. J. Ale. Baird invented television on this day. He said that television is a very powerful medium of mass communication. Through this, the message can be conveyed to all, educated and uneducated. Television is a great discovery of the 20th century.

Gajanan, Eefa, Deepesh, Srishti group got first place in the competition, Komal, Shikha, Karan, Sohil, Prashant got second place and Parth, Megha, Nandani Raunak and Niketa group got third place. Anupam, Ajay, Abhay, Dharendra, Yogesh, Urvashi, Divya and others were present on the occasion.

AJANTA AND ELLORA - OUR HERITAGE :

OUR IDENTITY ART EXHIBITION

The picture reflects our cultural, social, economic and educational status. Ajanta and Ellora have been recognized as World Heritage. This is the recognition given by the world to our artistic expression. Vice Chancellor of Bundelkhand University Jhansi, Prof. Mukesh Pandey expressed this idea today. Addressing the participants on the inauguration of the painting exhibition organized by Prof. Pandey Srijan The Drawing and Painting Club, Bundelkhand University Jhansi said.

Prof. Pandey said that the caves of Ajanta Ellora have actually appeared here. The art work created by the students is very different from the art work available on the internet and is vibrant. From this it can easily be said that the students have made full use of their educational tour.

District Magistrate of Jhansi

district Ravindra Kumar, the chief guest of the programme, said that when there was no language in the world, people used to express themselves through pictures only. Looking at the artistic splendor of India, it seems that here people have used art as a form of communication. It is a powerful medium of communication and self-expression for a long time.

Director General of the Indian Institute of Mass Communication, New Delhi, Prof. Sanjay

Dwivedi said that painting has always been relevant. The creations made by the children will prove to be helpful in awakening the time.

Dean of Arts Faculty Prof. Munna Tiwari said that Bundeli gallery will be constructed with the help of students of Bundelkhand University Jhansi. The way we go today to see the art works of Ajanta and Ellora, in the same way it will be our endeavor to preserve the artistry here and get its place in the world.

Jhansi Divisional Tourism Commissioner SK Dubey said that the caves of Ajanta and Ellora have their heritage as well as equality in

Volunteers take out awareness rally on AIDS Day

NSS University Jhansi Unit II and VI organized third one day camp

Volunteers of Unit II and VI of National Service Scheme Bundelkhand University Jhansi organized an awareness rally on the occasion

of AIDS Day today. Volunteers told people about AIDS causes, prevention and misconceptions through self made posters.

Addressing the rally, Vice Chancellor of Bundelkhand University Jhansi, Prof. Mukesh Pandey said that there is protection only in awareness. It is necessary for a person to be aware of AIDS.

In-charge Coordinator NSS and Registrar Vinay Kumar Singh discussed with the volunteers about AIDS and told about its misconceptions.

Inaugurating the rally, Dean Faculty of Arts

Prof. Munna Tiwari said that AIDS is not a disease but it is the root of all diseases. He said that no remedy has yet been discovered for the diagnosis of AIDS. There is only protection in knowledge. He said that many misconceptions about AIDS are spread in the society, which is the responsibility of the volunteers to remove them. Volunteers can easily do this work with their efforts.

On this occasion, Senior Program Officer Dr.

Shweta Pandey told that the volunteers of Bundelkhand University Jhansi have played an important role in creating awareness about the evils and diseases prevailing in the society. Today the volunteers made people aware about AIDS and tried to dispel misconceptions.

National Service Scheme Nodal Officer District Jhansi Dr. Umesh Kumar said that volunteers of Unit II and VI participated in AIDS awareness rally today. The volunteers did the work of making people aware with self-made material.

Program Officer Dr. Shubhangi Nigam, Brijesh Kumar Lodhi, volunteers of Unit II, VI, III and IX were present on this occasion.
